Examiner's Amendment

I. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

II. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. John Ling (Reg. No.51, 216) on September 12, 2005.

III. The application has been amended as follows:

A. In the specification:

All previous copy of the first paragraph in the specification immediately following the title has been replaced with the following clean copy of the paragraph as amended by the Examiner's amendment:

Cross-Reference to Related Applications

This application is related to copending U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/818,448, entitled PROTOCOL AGNOSTIC WEB LISTENER and filed on March 27, 2001, now patent number US 6,931,647 B1.

B. In the claims:

1. All previous copies of claims 1, 3-6, 10, 29, and 35-40 have been replaced with the following clean copy of claims 1, 3-6, 10, 29, and 35-40 as amended by the Examiner's amendment:

Claim 1. A computer system for communicating over a protocol, comprising:

 a class factory that selects a protocol object creator that produces an object associated with a protocol for communicating over a network comprising:
 a plurality of identifiers; and at least one registered protocol object creator associated with at least one of the plurality of identifiers, the at least one registered protocol object creator creates at least one protocol object;
 the at least one protocol object comprising:
 a reading component adapted to read a first data from a resource, the first data having at least one of, a format specific to the protocol and one or more headers and/or footers specific to the protocol when it is read from the resource; and a writing component adapted to write a second data to the resource, the second data having at least one of, a format specific to the protocol and one or more headers and/or footers specific to the protocol when it is written to the resource.

Claim 3. The system of claim 1, wherein the resource is at least one of, a service, an application and a content source, the resource being accessible over a network.

Claim 4. The system of claim 1, wherein the protocol is at least one of a Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP), a File Transfer Protocol (FTP) and a Simple Mail Transport Protocol (SMTP).

Claim 5. The system of claim 1, wherein the plurality of identifiers comprise one or more Uniform Resource Identifiers (URIs).

Claim 6. The system of claim 1, wherein the plurality of identifiers comprise one or more prefixes associated with one or more URIs.

Claim 10. The system of claim 1, wherein the at least one protocol object is adapted to read the first data from the resource.

Claim 29. A computer system for communicating over a protocol, comprising:

a class factory that selects a protocol object creator that produces an object associated with a protocol comprising:
a plurality of identifiers, where the identifiers are URIs; and at least one registered protocol object creator, the at least one registered protocol object creator adapted to create at least one protocol object;

the at least one protocol object comprising:
a reader adapted to read a first data from a resource, where the first data has formatting specific to the protocol when the first data is read from the resource, where the protocol is at least one of a Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP), a File

Transfer Protocol (FTP) and a Simple Mail Transport Protocol (SMTQ), where the resource is at least one of a service, an application and a content source, and where the resource is accessible over a network; and a writer adapted to write a second data to the resource, where the second data has formatting specific to the protocol when the second data is written to the resource.

Claim 35. The system of claim 29, information associated with the identifiers of the resource comprises one or more Uniform Resource Identifiers (URIs).

Claim 36. The system of claim 29, information associated with the identifiers of the resource comprises one or more prefixes associated with one or more URIs.

Claim 37. The system of claim 29, the object generator is associated with one or more constructors, each constructor produces a protocol object specific to a particular protocol.

Claim 38. The system of claim 37, the protocol object reads data from a first resource, formats read data as a byte stream, and writes data to a second resource.

Claim 39. The system of claim 38, the first and second resources are the same resource.

Claim 40. The system of claim 29, the resource is at least one of a service, an application, and a content source, and is available over a network.

2. Claims 2 and 30-34 have been cancelled.

IV. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to VAN H. NGUYEN whose telephone number is (571) 272-3765. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday from 8:30AM - 6:00PM. The examiner can also be reached on alternative Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Meng-Ai An can be reached on (571) 272-3756.
